

Laboratory work 11

1. Create function that returns cube of number.
2. Create function that returns average sum of numbers.
3. Create function that returns max number of numbers.
4. Create function that returns min number of numbers.
5. Create function that returns count of numbers.
6. Create function that returns table of students with columns: id, name, specialty, birth date, address, mobile number
7. Show the table of students
8. Create function that returns max height among students